¹ Regular papers: Lexicalized Tree Automata-based Grammars for translating conversational texts

Kiyoshi Yamabana, Shinichi Ando, Kiyomi Mimura

July 2000 Proceedings of the 17th conference on Computational linguistics - Volume 2Full text available: pdf\(624.18 KB\)

Additional Information: full citation, abstract, references

We propose a new lexicalized grammar formalism called Lexicalized Tree Automata-based Grammar, which lexicalizes tree acceptors instead of trees themselves. We discuss the properties of the grammar and present a chart parsing algorithm. We have implemented a translation module for conversational texts using this formalism, and applied it to an experimental automatic interpretation system (speech translation system).
